College of Medical Technology

Medical Technology is the most recommended pre-medical course by our alumni. Producing passing rates that are always above the national passing average, providing up-to-date modes of instruction, and high-tech facilities.

Our College of Medical Technology is one of the founding schools and active member of the ASEAN Association of Schools of Medical Technology (AASMT).

Being one of the pioneer schools offering a Bachelor of Science in Medical Technology program, we value innovation, producing graduates that are in demand both here and abroad.
